To whom it may concern,

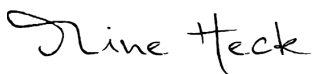

When I found Smiling Dutchman after some online research, I was already taking private Dutch language classes for 5 weeks. I was not very happy with my progress, as my pronunciation was not understandable by Dutch people.

Bally responded my request within the same day and offered me a free class immediately. After an hour of private class with him, I decided to work with Bally.

Even after a few weeks of classes, my speaking and listening skills had a rapid progress and thus my relation with my Dutch mother in law. Bally's great teaching skills, his positive attitude and his constructive approach to pronunciation mistakes did not only help me learn Dutch faster, but also encouraged me to bring my language skills to a next level.

I recommend Bally Baker's Dutch classes especially to working professionals, since he is always very flexible on scheduling the classes. Classes with Bally are a great way to get rid of the stressful environment of worklife and focus on learning the language of the country we live in with guaranteed progress.
